SPRING BREAK

Confirmation of registration and additional information at registration are downloadable

The paid invoice will serve as confirmation of registration. You have the responsibility to download these documents available in the left margin of the page of the selected camp.

People who do not have email will receive their receipt and additional information by mail or delivered at the counter.

Refund policy

In case of cancellation before the service delivery date, an administration fee of $40 per camper will be retained. No refund is available after this date.

During a stay, in case of illness or accident (doctor's note required) the lost days and services will be reimbursed on a pro rata basis.

The expenses incurred will be reimbursed in full if the activity is canceled by the Centre.

Waiting list

When registration for a group is full, you may place your child on a waiting list. You will be contacted as soon as a place is free, after which you will have 24 hours to make a decision with no additional charges except for the difference ( $\pm$ ) between programs if your child is already registered in another program.

Expelling a camper

Camp management reserves the right to expel a camper if his / her conduct is deemed unacceptable, in the best interest of the camp and the camper. In this case, a refund will be issued based on the number of days used, less the registration fee. You can see the camper's code of conduct in the left margin of the selected camp.

Misuse of equipment and infrastructures

Camp management reserves the right to charge the parents of the offending participant for replacement and/or repair fees for any misuse of their equipment and/or infrastructure.

Personal effects

The camp management does not assume responsibility for lost and/or damaged personal effects.
